PRESS RELEASE

Dr. Anthony Catanese Joins Modus Operandi Board of Directors

MELBOURNE, Florida, May 28, 2003 – Modus Operandi, a leading business and information technology solutions company, announced the appointment of Dr. Anthony J. Catanese, President of Florida Institute of Technology and former President of Florida Atlantic University, to its Board of Directors.

Dr. Catanese is a graduate of Rutgers University where he earned a degree in city and regional planning. He holds a Master of Urban Planning degree from New York University, a Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin in urban and regional planning, and was a Senior Fulbright Professor in Bogotá, Colombia.

A member of the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners, Dr. Catanese previously maintained a private practice with more than fifty clients, consulting on projects such as coastal zone planning and development in Hawaii. Public service in this area has included an appointment by President Jimmy Carter to the National Urban Policy Task Force and appointments as Chairman of the Milwaukee City Planning Board and Chairman of the Gainesville City Planning Commission.

Dr. Catanese is the Founding President of the Florida State University Presidents Association and has served as President or Chairman of the Florida Association of Colleges and Universities; Florida Campus Compact; and Atlantic Sun Athletics Conference. He has served on several boards, including National Collegiate Athletics Association, Orange Bowl Committee, AvMed (South Florida) and Wachovia Bank (Florida). He is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Chief Executive Leadership Award of the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (2001), and is author of 13 books and over 65 journal articles.

Said Peter B. Dyson, Modus Operandi President and CEO, “I am thrilled to welcome Dr. Catanese as the newest member of our Board of Directors. Dr. Catanese is passionate about enabling improvement for all enterprises – business, academic and government – and his enthusiasm for our products and services combined with his experience and leadership talent will greatly contribute to the success of Modus Operandi.”
